This collection of short films produced in Los Angeles between 1967 and 2005 takes us to Hollywood, Union, Downtown, and beyond, demonstrating that queerness has always been intertwined with Los Angeles's multitude of cultures. The titles of the shorts films are as follows: WHO IS SHE? Dir: Richard Jay Silverthorn, 1980, 8 min. BEHIND EVERY DOOR Dir: Ursin, 1967, 8 min. VIERNES GIRL Dir: Aurora Guerrero, 2005, 6 min. 103 DEGREES Dir: Enelope Spheris, 1970, 20 min. TEA ROOM SCENE Dir: Richard Jay Silverthorn, 1975, 8 min. FUCK YOU, SANTA CLAUS Dir: Richard Jay Silverthorn, 1975, 8 min.

"The Long Road to Civil Rights" two day workshop for educators

On June 29th and 30th, the ONE Archives Foundation collaborated with UCLA Los Angeles LGBT Center to present "The Long Road to Civil Rights: LGBTQ History," a two day workshop for educators at ONE Archives at the USC Libraries. The workshop included an exploration of LGBTQ history from the 1920s to 2010s, a presentation on inclusive classrooms, and a comprehensive look at California's new History Standards and the FAIR Education Act. We are excited to continue contributing to the creation of the FAIR Education Act. Learn more about the ONE Archives Foundation's involvement with the FAIR Education Act here.

The ONE Archives Foundation's History Panels are on view at West Hollywood Park

For the City of West Hollywood's annual One City One Pride LGBTQ Arts Festival, the ONE Archives Foundation and the City of West Hollywood partnered to display the ONE Archives Foundation's History of the LGBTQ Civil Rights Movement History Panels around the West Hollywood Park. The ONE Archives Foundation is thrilled to announce that the History panels will continue to be displayed around the park through the end of August! Make sure to stop by and enjoy queer history!

The History of the LGBTQ Civil Rights Movement History Panel series consists of two new panels about the City of West Hollywood and its critical role in LGBTQ history and organizing. To find out more about ONE Archives Foundation's history panels, visit onearchives.org.

The ONE Queer Garden Club is back!

Next meeting: Saturday, July 22, 10am-1pm

ONE Archives at the USC Libraries

909 West Adams Boulevard
Los Angeles, CA 90007

The aim of the ONE Queer Garden Club (OQGC) is to improve the physical garden at ONE Archives at the USC Libraries. Over time, the garden and OQGC will evolve into a Queer Garden, a creative place to commemorate the many queer ancestors who have lived and worked at the USC Libraries. The next meeting will include a workshop with mosaic artist, Jolino Beserra, to create mosaic tile decorations for the garden.
