Your Gift Will Be Matched!

Thanks to you, ONE Archives has been preserving the LGBTQ history, culture, pride, and passion since 1952. We strive to document and celebrate the times and events in LGBTQ history that others have tried to suppress for centuries.

Now, you have an opportunity to make an historic impact in preserving our stories and culture for generations to come. Generous donors of the ONE Archives Foundation are offering a \$100,000 ONE to ONE Matching Gift Challenge now through year-end.

You will double the impact of your gift. Your qualifying matching gift will help us preserve LGBTQ history and honor the pioneers who have fought so courageously and selflessly for LGBTQ equality.

Please, join us in celebrating GIVE OUT Day on August 2 and make your most generous gift to take advantage of the ONE to ONE Matching Gift Challenge.

Fair, Accurate, Inclusive, and Respectful

The ONE Archives Foundation is proud to be a partner for the FAIR Education Act. On July 14 2016, The California State Board of Education made the FAIR Education Act a reality. The new, groundbreaking History/Social Science Framework provides teachers with the resources to teach about LGBTQ history, which has previously been left out of history classes.

Thanks to our coalition partners and all of you have advocated for this historic change!

Collaboration, Impact, and Inclusion

ONE Archives at the USC Libraries' Director Joseph Hawkins recently attended the LGBTQ Archives, Libraries, Museums and Special Collections (ALMS) Conference in London from June 21-24. The conference is an international gathering of both established and grassroots archival collections from around the world. Hawkins presented a paper entitled "Collaboration, Impact, and Inclusion: archiving in a posthuman, cybernetic, informatically queer world."

The ALMS Conference is an international gathering of both established and grass roots archival collections from around the world. Read more about the conference here.

Now on Sale: *Cock, Paper, Scissors

The catalogue accompanying the exhibition Cock, Paper, Scissors from ONE Archives is now available. The hardbound, full color, 158 page publication includes numerous images and multiple texts on a range of queer collage practices.

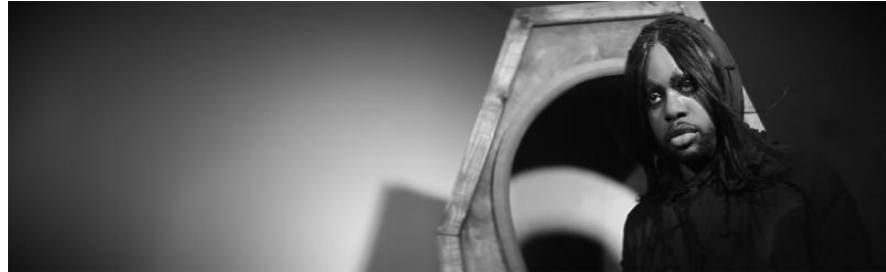

The catalogue includes an introduction and essays by the exhibition's curators David Evans Frantz, Lucas Hilderbrand, and Kayleigh Perkov; interviews with artists in the exhibition: Enrique Castrejon and Jonathan Molina-Garcia in conversation with Lucas Hilderbrand, Suzanne Wright in conversation with Ramzi Fawaz, and Jade Yumang in conversation with Julia Bryan-Wilson; and reprints of historical and archival texts by Glenn Ligon, Melissa Meyer and Miriam Schapiro, and two anonymous contributors.

Purchase the catalogue for *Cock, Paper, Scissors* for \$35 on the new ONE Archives Foundation online store here.

Drawing on Negro Spirituals that call for the end times, what Lamar calls Doom Spirituals, M. Lamar: Funeral Doom Spiritual at ONE Archives exhumes legacies of racial violence while longing for the forthcoming destruction of white supremacy.

M. Lamar: Funeral Doom Spiritual is organized by David Evans Frantz, Curator at ONE Archives at the USC Libraries. This exhibition is made possible, in part, by a grant from the City of Los Angeles, Department of Cultural Affairs. Additional support is provided by The Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts and the ONE Archives Foundation.
