2017 MATCHING
GIFT CHALLENGE

Announcing the 2017 Matching Gift Challenge: Your Donation will be Doubled or Tripled!

We are delighted to announce that the ONE Archives Foundation's Board of Directors have made a remarkable commitment to preserving and celebrating LGBTQ history and culture by matching all donations received through December 31, 2017, up to $100,000. Your generous gift up to $1,500 will be matched one-to-one, meaning your contribution is doubled! Your gift over $1,500 will be matched two-to-one, tripling the impact of your donation!

The ONE Archives Foundation has been preserving LGBTQ history, culture, and pride, and passion for over six decades. We document and celebrate the times and events in LGBTQ history that others have tried to suppress for centuries. You have an opportunity to make a historic impact in sharing our stories and culture for generations to come by making your most generous gift today!

Please Note: ONE Archives Foundation's administrative offices are now located at the Harmony Gold building:

Axis Mundo: Queer Networks in Chicano L.A. is a part of Pacific Standard Time: LA/LA, a farreaching and ambitious exploration of Latin American and Latino art in dialogue with Los Angeles. Supported by grants from the Getty Foundation, Pacific Standard Time: LA/LA takes place from September 2017 through January 2018 at more than 70 cultural institutions across Southern California, from Los Angeles to Palm Springs, and from San Diego to Santa Barbara. Pacific Standard Time is an initiative of the Getty.

Axis Mundo: Queer Networks in Chicano L.A. has been made possible through major grants from the Getty Foundation.

This exhibition is supported in part by an award from the National Endowment for the Arts. Additional support has been provided by The Calamus Foundation of New York, Inc., the City of West Hollywood through WeHo Arts—the City’s Arts Division and Arts & Cultural Affairs Commission, Kathleen Garfield, the ONE Archives Foundation, the USC Libraries, and the Luis Balmaseda Fund for Gay & Lesbian Archives, administered by the California Community Foundation.

Lead support for MOCA Pacific Design Center is provided by Charles S. Cohen.

Exhibitions at MOCA are supported by the MOCA Fund for Exhibitions with lead annual support provided by Sydney Holland, founder of the Sydney D. Holland Foundation. Generous funding is also provided by Allison and Larry Berg, Delta Air Lines, and Jerri and Dr. Steven Nagelberg.
