2018 Year in Review

Because of You...

LGBTQ history has had an extraordinary impact across Los Angeles and beyond. In 2018, powered by your investment, we launched several new programs and re-opened the ONE Gallery, West Hollywood to activate our history for future generations. Together, we preserve and amplify the voices of our community. Read below about the power of ONE and please consider making a year-end contribution to continue this vital work. We thank for your commitment to our collective history.

Power of Storytelling

In 2018, the ONE Gallery re-opened in the heart of West Hollywood with the exhibition Lost & Found: Safer Sex Activism. The exhibition examined thirty years of inspiring and defiant safer sex and harm reduction activism through posters, comics, brochures, videos, PSAs, and clean needle kits, among other archival items from the collections at ONE Archives at the USC Libraries. Power of the Next Generation

Through hands-on research projects and workshop sessions, the ONE Archives Foundation trains and mentors a core group of high school student leaders from across the greater Los Angeles area to become peer ambassadors for LGBTQ history and culture in their communities. From LGBTQ history lessons by scholars, historians, and community leaders, research and writing sessions, and field trips to LGBTQ organizations and landmarks, our Youth Ambassadors for Queer History.
