

The Butler Art of Stephen Warble
San Francisco Performance Art in the 1970s, photographs by Greg Day at West Hollywood's ONE Gallery, located at 425 North Robertson Boulevard

Exhibition on display from March 1, 2019 – May 17, 2019
Opening Reception: Friday, March 1, 2019 | 5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

West Hollywood, CA — The ONE Archives Foundation, Inc. is pleased to announce The Butler Art of Stephen Warble San Francisco Performance Art in the 1970s, photographs by Greg Day. Curated by David L. Getag, Professor at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago, the exhibition brings to light the work of performance artist Stephen Warble (1946–1988) through the photographs taken by Greg Day (b. 1944) of his costumes, performances, and collaboration pieces.

In costumes made from street trash, food waste, and stolen objects, Stephen Warble took to the streets of 1970s New York City to perform his “Butler Art.” With disruption as his aim, he led uninvited costumed teams through the galleries of hotels, occupied 1980s Avenue galleries, and burst into hotels and boutiques in his greater confounding members.