When Brooklyn Was Queer: A reading and conversation with Hugh Ryan

Thursday, May 9 from 7:00 – 9:00 PM

ONE Archives at the USC Libraries

909 West Adams Boulevard
Los Angeles, CA 90007

Hugh Ryan, author of When Brooklyn Was Queer, will lead a discussion on his groundbreaking exploration of the LGBT history of Brooklyn, from the early days of Walt Whitman in the 1850s up through the queer women who worked at the Brooklyn Navy Yard during World War II, and beyond. The Road to the Stonewall Riots: Limited Edition History Panel Series

To commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Stonewall Riots, the ONE Archives Foundation is excited to release a limited edition series of our LGBTQ History Panels titled History of the LGBTQ Civil Rights Movement: The Road to the Stonewall Riots.

This series presents the incredibly inspiring journey of the LGBTQ community leading up to the Stonewall Riots of 1969. Learn about gender non-conforming folks who boldly challenged gender conventions in the early 20th century; the beginning of “gayborhoods” in the 1940s; the Lavender Scare and the establishment of the earliest gay and lesbian organizations in the 1950s; the transgender people of color-led social uprisings in the 1950s and early 1960s; and the Stonewall Riots of 1969 that helped the LGBTQ community lead one of the most important civil rights advancements of the last century. Rear Opening: A Performance Tribute to the Gutter Art of Stephen Varble

Saturday, May 11 from 3:30 – 5:00 PM

ONE Gallery, West Hollywood

626 North Robertson Boulevard
West Hollywood, CA 90069

A cadre of performing artists—Jason Jenn, Yozmit, and Enrique Jesus Hernandez—who uniquely defy the status quo will deliver an appropriately inappropriate tribute to the genderqueer provocateur Stephen Varble. This program is organized in conjunction with The Gutter Art of Stephen Varble: Genderqueer Performance Art in the 1970s, photographs by Greg Day, on view at the ONE Gallery, West Hollywood until May 17. More Than Surviving: Asian Pacific Islander People Living with HIV

Sunday, May 19 from 2:00 – 4:00 PM

ONE Archives at the USC Libraries

909 West Adams Boulevard
Los Angeles, CA 90007

To have survived the most brutal public health crisis in recent American history is a triumph of both the individual and our community. As part of National Asian & Pacific Islander HIV/AIDS Awareness Day to end silence and shame about HIV/AIDS, survivors will share how they beat the odds and found community in the process. To learn more and to RSVP, please click here.
