Youth Ambassadors for Queer History

This year, we are excited to host a new cohort of students from across the Los Angeles area as the ONE Archives Foundation's Youth Ambassadors for Queer History program. Along with learning about contemporary LGBTQ topics through archival materials, conducting research, and participating in field trips around the city, the Youth Ambassadors are also creating projects that will be exhibited at the ONE Gallery, West Hollywood in Spring 2020. To learn more about the Youth Ambassadors program, please click here.
