ENCORE PRESENTATION OF HISTORIC ALL-STAR VIRTUAL READING OF
THE NORMAL HEART
TO TAKE PLACE DEC. 4, 2021

Presentation To Honor World AIDS Day

Tickets Available on Friday, November 5, 2021

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Los Angeles, CA (November 4, 2021) — ONE Archives Foundation, in collaboration with Invisible Histories Project, announced today a special encore presentation of the historic virtual reading of Larry Kramer's play THE NORMAL HEART. Directed by Emmy Award-winning director Paris Barclay, the virtual reading first took place in May 2021, marking the first time the Tony Award-winning play featured a cast that is predominately BIPOC and LGBTQ. The encore presentation of THE NORMAL HEART will take place on Saturday, December 4, at 12:00pm and 5:00pm. Tickets for the encore presentation will go on sale to the public on November 5, 2021 at onearchives.org/normalheart.

The virtual reading features an all-star cast, including Sterling K. Brown (This Is Us, Black Panther); Laverne Cox (Orange Is The New Black, Promising Young Woman); Jeremy Pope (Hollywood, Choir Boy); Vincent Rodriguez III (Crazy Ex-Girlfriend, Insatiable); Guillermo Díaz (Scandal, Weeds); Jake Borelli (Grey's Anatomy, The Thing About Harry); Ryan O'Connell (Special, Will & Grace); Daniel Newman (Walking Dead, Homeland); Jay Hayden (Station 19, The House Bunny); and Danielle Savre (Station 19, Heroes). The virtual reading will include a special introduction by Martin Sheen.

THE NORMAL HEART focuses on the rise of the HIV/AIDS crisis in New York City in the early 1980s. After cofounding the Gay Men's Health Crisis in 1982, Larry Kramer founded ACT UP in 1987. Produced and taught all over the world, THE NORMAL HEART was selected as one of the 100 Greatest Plays of the Twentieth Century by the Royal National Theatre of Great Britain. It was the longest-running play in the history of The Public Theater. It was also made into an Emmy Award-winning film for HBO by Ryan Murphy.

This screening of THE NORMAL HEART is an important reminder that the HIV/AIDS epidemic is not over, with 38 million people living with HIV globally in 2019. Its ongoing impact disproportionately affects the Black community. As of 2018, 42% of new HIV cases have occurred within the Black community, which only makes up 13% of the US population. According to the CDC in 2019, Southern states account for an estimated 51% of new HIV cases annually, even though only 38% of the US population lives in the Southern region.

"While many believe that HIV/AIDS is no longer a contemporary issue, living with HIV is still a daily reality, especially within the Black community and communities of color," said Jennifer C. Gregg, Executive Director of ONE Archives Foundation. "That's what makes this virtual reading of THE NORMAL HEART especially important; it strives to inform, educate, and empower the public while sharing the history of HIV/AIDS activism—activism that is still necessary today."

"The South is home to the largest percentage of LGBTQ people in the US. One-third of all LGBTQ people live here. The South is also home to the largest number of new HIV cases annually. This virtual reading of THE NORMAL HEART reflects a continuing narrative of advocacy, organizing, and the importance of community activism—particularly in an environment with insufficient government resources," said Maigen Sullivan, Director of Research & Development, Invisible Histories Project.

Tickets will go on sale to the public on Friday, November 5, 2021 at onearchives.org/normalheart. Ticket prices range from $20 - $100. Student pricing of $10 per ticket is available for the 12pm screening only. Sponsorships are also available. To sponsor the event, please contact Jennifer C. Gregg, Executive Director of ONE Archives Foundation at jgregg@onearchives.org.

Funds raised from this event will support ONE Archives Foundation's LGBTQ education initiatives, including K-12 lesson plans on HIV/AIDS, teacher trainings, youth engagement, and ONE Archives Foundation's exhibitions, such as Metanoia Online, which aims to center HIV history around Black women's experience and contributions to AIDS Activism.

Funds raised will also support Invisible Histories Project's legacy of HIV/AIDS and LGBTQ activists through archiving, inclusion training, exhibitions, and programs that keep Southern LGBTQ history alive.

Sponsors of the virtual screening include Jeff Soref and Paul Lombardi, The Murray/Reese Foundation, The Calamus Foundation, Inc., AIDS Alabama, Harry Gittelsohn and Albert Silva, Scott Davenport and Brad Dodson, Schmitt-Young Group at Morgan Stanley, Paul D. Lerner and Stephen Reis, Bank of America, Tomlinson Holman and Fritz Koenig, Amy A. Ross, David Farneth and David Gilbert, Jennifer C. Gregg and Cj Mitchell, Danny Fisk, Grand Stevens Group, LLC, Chiedu Egbuniwe, and May Hong HaDuong. A special thank you to Neal Baer, MD for his support of this virtual reading.

About Invisible Histories Project

The Invisible Histories Project (IHP) is dedicated to making LGBTQ Southern history accessible to the community. IHP is a community archiving and public history project that works to connect LGBTQ individuals and organizations with institutions like universities, museums, and libraries in order to ensure that the rich and diverse LGBTQ history of the South is preserved for future generations.

IHP's collection area consists of Alabama, Mississippi, the Florida panhandle, and Georgia, including the Atlanta metropolitan area. IHP curates in-person and online public exhibits, travels across the US speaking on Southern LGBTQ history, provides training and education to individuals and organizations, assists LGBTQ nonprofits in preserving their organizational history, and hosts multiple graduate and undergraduate internships each year.
