FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Los Angeles, CA (February 25, 2021) — ONE Archives Foundation announces the launch of Metanoia Online, an interactive web exhibit that provides and explores the question, “What happens when we center HIV history around Black women’s experience and contributions to AIDS Activism?”

Metanoia Online — launched February 24, 2021 — is created by ONE Archives Foundation with curatorial guidance from Katherine “Kat” Cheatin, creative direction from our Director of Content Strategy Uni Hsu, and design and production support by our Exhibitions Intern Pat Zuckine.

Metanoia Online is the third instantiation of the exhibition first launched at the LGBT Center in New York City (Winter 2018) and at the ONE Gallery, West Hollywood (January 2020). The original exhibition Metanoia: Transformations through AIDS Archives and Activism is
