ONE ARCHIVES FOUNDATION ANNOUNCES NEW LGBTQ+ PODCAST PERIODICALLY QUEER

Online Launch Party to Take Place on June 30, 2022

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Los Angeles, CA (June 16, 2022) —ONE Archives Foundation is thrilled to launch a new podcast project for this year's Pride season – Periodically Queer. The podcast will dive deep into the history and stories around LGBTQ+ print media, periodicals, and organizations. On each episode of Periodically Queer, the ONE Archives Foundation team and their guests will explore the stories behind the page, and discuss topics such as queer community building, finding LGBTQ+ ancestors and more.

"Periodically Queer reminds us that everyone has a power to tell their stories and build a community through whatever media resources that are available to them at their time in history. As members of the LGBTQ+ community, we have a commitment to combat isolation and create a sense of social belonging," said Umi Hsu, Director of Content Strategy from ONE Archives Foundation. "The stories featured on the podcast will resonate with today's listeners
