FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Los Angeles, CA (September 8, 2023) — ONE Archives Foundation announced today the full schedule for the 75+ programs slated for Circa: Queer Histories Festival 2023. Circa programs will take place at over 50 venues across Los Angeles from October 1–25. Tickets to all programs are now available at circafestival.org.

Circa's unprecedented lineup honors LGBTQ+ History Month through thought-provoking exhibitions, readings, performances, panel conversations, and more, showcasing the trailblazing history and cultural contributions of the LGBTQ+ community. Festival programs spotlight the bold artistic talent of over 200 community presenters representing every part of Los Angeles' thriving arts and cultural landscape, from leading actors, writers, thinkers, filmmakers, and cultural organizations. Participating organizations include the AGLU of Southern California, Celebration Theatre, the Early Research Institute, Williams Institute, Lambda Library, Museum of Neon Art, the Queerthe Inland, William Grant Still Arts Center, Gender Justice LA, and more.
