

CONTACT:

Tony Valenzuela (he/him), valenzuela@oneinstitute.org
Executive Director, One Institute

The poster features a red border at the top with a repeating pattern of small red icons. The central image shows a large monument of wooden poles, with the word "YOUTH" in large red letters overlaid. Below "YOUTH" is a red banner with the text "NATIONAL YOUTH HIV/AIDS AWARENESS DAY". To the right of the image, there is a vertical red line. To the right of the line, the text reads: "NATIONAL YOUTH HIV/AIDS AWARENESS DAY", followed by four red stick figures, "SERIAL HEALTH RESOURCE FAIR + GUEST STORY TELLERS", followed by eight red stick figures, "THURSDAY, APRIL 9", "4:00 - 6:00 PM", and "WEST HOLLYWOOD PARK". At the bottom right, there are logos for "STORIES: THE AIDS MONUMENT", "one INSTITUTE", and a small black square logo.

ONE INSTITUTE TO HOST INAUGURAL
NATIONAL YOUTH HIV/AIDS AWARENESS EVENT
AT STORIES: THE AIDS MONUMENT
IN WEST HOLLYWOOD, CA

Free Programming And Resource Fair To Take Place April 9

Open To All, Including Youth, Families, And Educators